

THE JOURNAL

OF THE

FRIENDS' HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

---

Contents.	PAGE
Notices - - - - -	1
Notes and Queries - - - - -	2
"The First Publishers of Truth"—II. By A. Neave Brayshaw, LL.B.	7
Deborah Logan and her Contributions to History. By Amelia Mott Gummere. - - - - -	9
Church Affairs in Gaol - - - - -	15
Joseph Williams's Recollections of the Irish Rebellion of 1798—I. -	16
Gulielma Maria Springett and her Tenant - - - - -	20
Letter of Margaret Fox, 1677. Edited by Isaac Sharp, B.A. -	21
Inscriptions in old Friends' Burial Ground, Leiston - - -	25
"Old Style" and "New Style." By Eliot Howard, J.P., D.L. -	26
Thomas Hancock, author of "The Peculium" - - - - -	28
The Wife of John Swinton. By William F. Miller - - - - -	29
Letter of William Penn - - - - -	31
Meetings in Yorkshire, 1668—I. - - - - -	32
The Daughters of John Archdale - - - - -	36
Friends in Current Literature. By Norman Penney - - - - -	37
Friends' Reference Library, Devonshire House - - - - -	39
Fourth List of Members - - - - -	40
Editorial Forecast - - - - -	40

---

D.=The Reference Library of the Society of Friends, Devonshire House, 12, Bishopsgate Street Without, London, E.C.

---

Notices.

---

Members' subscriptions for the year 1905 are now due, and should be sent to Norman Penney, Devonshire House, Bishopsgate, London, E.C., to Dr. R. M. Jones, 1010 Arch Street, Philadelphia, or to David S. Taber, 51 Fifth Avenue, New York.

A carefully prepared reproduction of writing in cipher accompanies this number. The assistance of our members and others in the work of reading it would be very welcome. See i. 53.