

He concluded by an animated allusion to that awful moment when death should leave us, and judgment find us.

His address occupied two hours and a half, and elicited much admiration from the principals of the Society.

Petition from the Vestry of Newcastle, Pa., to the Commissioners.¹

To the Honourable^{le} Commiss^{rs} of Property, &c.

The Petition of The Vestry of Emanuell Church, in Newcastle, humbly Sheweth—

That the Members of the said Church, having been at great Charge in Erecting the same, which hath been honoured by her Majesty's Bounty, and Dignified by the Liberality of the honourable Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, find themselves at a great Loss for Want of a Convenient Place for a Burying Ground or Church Yard, Therefore Doe humbly Request of the Gentlemen Commissioners a Grant for One Hundred and Seventy foot Square of Ground, Circumjacent to the said Church; of which Necessity Collon^l John French hath been pleased to Vndertake to give you further Informaçon, Who we pray may be heard.

And your Petitioners, as in Duty bound, shall ever Pray.
