

London Yearly Meeting, 1670.

In THE JOURNAL, ii. 62, I made the statement, "No record of the holding of this Meeting has yet been met with." I have since found the following reference to a Yearly Meeting of this year in the journal of John Burnyeat,¹ "Then I took my journey for London to the yearly meeting that was in the Spring of the year 1670, and so spent a part of that Summer in London." This seems to establish the fact that the Yearly Meeting, announced in the Epistle of 1668/9 to take place "about the time called Easter, in the year 1670," did take place at that time, although it is probable that its sittings were much interrupted by persecution and imprisonment.

We may, therefore, conclude that the Yearly Meeting was held in London without a break from Second Month, 1668, to 1904.

Editors' Notes.

The Editors hope to include in the next issue a letter from William Penn, dated from Philadelphia in 1701, and referring to riots in East Jersey, which letter, they believe, has never been printed in full. It will be accompanied with annotations from the pen of Dr. Isaac Sharpless, of Haverford.

Extracts from letters of Edmund Peckover, descriptive of his travels in America in 1742-43, are in type.

The Editors have on hand an informing article on "Esquire Marsh" of George Fox's Journal, written by Joseph Joshua Green; also articles on the libraries of Earlham and Haverford Colleges.

The Meeting for Sufferings of London Yearly Meeting has given permission for the publication in THE JOURNAL of certain lists in its possession of minute-books and other records, preserved in various parts of the country.
