Notice.

The third annual meeting of the Friends' Historical Society was held at Devonshire House, London, E.C., on the 24th of Fifth Month, about 100 members and others being present. William Charles Braithwaite presided. A special feature of interest was the public exhibition, for the first time, of the MS. Journal of George Fox, which had arrived the previous day for deposit in D. For list of officers of the Society, accounts, and balance sheet, see pp. 127, 128.
