

imperative that added facilities be provided for its future growth and permanent interests. A library building, equipped especially for library purposes, and furnishing the necessary advantages of an educational laboratory for the seeker of truth in whatever field of research he may be engaged, is now an essential to the best interests of the College, and with its acquisition the College as a whole will enter upon a new era of advancement.¹ HARLOW LINDLEY.

¹ We are pleased to learn that Earlham College has just secured a large number of Friends' books and pamphlets from the library of the late Joseph S. Elkinton, of Philadelphia. [Eds.]

Editors' Notes.

The present number has been enlarged to forty-eight pages to provide space for several articles awaiting publication.

The Editors hope to print, next quarter, a paper on the Select Meetings of London Yearly Meeting (the Yearly Meeting of Ministers and Elders and the Yearly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight), in connection with the recent action of the Yearly Meeting in laying down such Meetings.

Other papers to appear in course include "May Drummond," by William F. Miller; "An Unpublished Letter of Hannah Callowhill, the second wife of William Penn, to Thomas Story," edited by J. J. Green; Early Marriage Certificate, Hough-Barnes; Letter from William Penn to Thomas Curtis, 1706; "Our Bibliographers: I.—John Whiting," by Isaac Sharp, B.A.; "Personal Recollections of American Friends travelling in the British Isles, 1828 to 1852," by Samuel Alexander; "Presentations of Quakers in Episcopal Visitations, 1662 to 1679," by G. Lyon Turner, M.A.; etc.

William C. Braithwaite's article on "The Penal Laws affecting Early Friends in England" is to hand, and will appear in the last number of "The First Publishers of Truth." This last number (Supplement No. 5) will not be obtainable separately, save by subscribers to the whole work.
