

“ Wee being mett together peaceably in the feare of the Lord at Hucknall in our meeting house upon the 16th of second month, 1676,” etc.

FARNSFIELD.

A burial ground was purchased 29 x. 1673. Presumably there was a Meeting House, as we find a Monthly Meeting was held here 10 vi. 1698.

BLYTHE.

There is a disused Meeting House in this village belonging to Nottingham and Mansfield Monthly Meeting. In the early Q.M. minute book mention is frequently made of Blythe and of the Friends of that Meeting.

I fear this is not a complete list of early Nottinghamshire Meetings, as when the notes were made no special notice was taken of the different Meetings.

EMILY MANNERS.

Editors' Notes.

The Editors have on hand for next year's volume several articles of considerable interest, among which may be mentioned:—“ A Glimpse of Ancient Friends in Dorset,” by Elizabeth B. Rutter; “ Friends in Barbadoes,” by C. Dickinson Sturge; several articles on Friends in Nottinghamshire, by Emily Manners; a history of Friends' property in Somerby, Leicestershire, by the late Mary Radley, edited by Henrietta Ellis; “ Thomas Areskine, Brewer, of Edinburgh,” by William F. Miller; an account of Richard Cubham, of Bickerstaffe, Lancs.; “ Bernard Barton's Dream,” by J. J. Green; “ Reminiscences of Manchester Meeting.”

Various early documents relating to Friends, preserved in the Public Record Office, London, are being copied, and it is hoped that these may be printed in extenso, from time to time, by the F.H.S.
