

An Ending of Differences, 1688.

Whereas there have been Differences between us, which have been opened before G. ff & severall faithfull Brethren, we doe in y<sup>e</sup> spirit of Christ freely forgive each other, & desire that all agravations Relateing thereto may be passed by & forever Buryed; & if either of us for time to Come should Rake up or trouble ffriends in any place with ye said Differences, we doe submitt that y<sup>e</sup> same spirit of Christ shall Judge & Condemne that person, w<sup>ch</sup>soever of us itt bee, y<sup>t</sup> shall be guilty thereof, itt being wholly Inconsistant wth our xtian profession & testimony to appear in y<sup>e</sup> Least Revengfull or Implacable.

And we desire y<sup>t</sup> all Records & papers Relating to y<sup>e</sup> differences betwixt us be Canceled & Removed, & this paper to be Exposed by eith<sup>r</sup> of us, to all such psons as have heard of y<sup>e</sup> Differences between us.
