Meeting Records.

AT MEETING HOUSE, PARK STREET, NOTTINGHAM.

1. Derbyshire Q.M. Book, 1672-1761.

Contains some unique Derbyshire papers on Tithes, etc., also an autograph Testimony by Miles Hubbersty to young John Brocksopp, who copied many papers, and whose early death may be the reason there are no Q.M. minutes entered earlier than 1672. The minutes commence quite informally in 1672 ; there are several pages left vacant before them as though other entries of an earlier date had been intended.

2. Book of Denials, Disownments, etc., 1685-1820.

Includes disownment, in 1761, of Gilbert (Heathcote) Rodes, of Barlborough Hall, successor of Sir John Rodes, for worldliness.

3. Monyash M.M. Book, 1672-1735.

This book is described in THE JOURNAL, iii. 82.

4. Derbyshire Women's Q.M. Book, 1672-1761.

This contains only a bare record of collections and expenses, except a long paper at the beginning, apparently undated, from "Our County Women's Meeting in Lancashire, to be dispersed abroad among the women's meetings everywhere." It is followed by many names of Women Friends of Derbyshire, under date 25th 4 mo., 1689, among which occur those of Ellen Fretwell (died in Derby gaol, 1693), Margaret Lynam, Elizabeth Roads, Sarah Fearne, and about thirty-six others, four erased.

<sup>18</sup> Caleb Pusey lived near Chester, on the Delaware River, in Delaware County, Pa. He wrote in defence of Friends and was a prominent person in the Colony. See The Friend (Phila.), xxix. 148.
