G. LYON TURNER.

I am of opinion that anecdotes which disclose the virtuous actions of our worthy ancestors should be preserved and held up for the example of their descendants.—DANIEL LONGSTRETH, quoted in Longstreth Family Records, 1909.

He only deserves to be remembered by posterity who treasures up and preserves the history of his ancestors.—BURKE, quoted in Longstreth Family Records, 1909.

It is not without pleasure, and perchance it may not be without use, that we rescue some quaint old document from the dust of ages; and that we arrest the floating memories of men & things, as they pass down the stream of time toward the ocean of oblivion.—Quoted in History of the Wilmer Family, 1888.
