

CONTENTS

| | |
|---|-----|
| Thomas Bennet, Schoolmaster, of Pickwick, Wilts. Illustrated | 203 |
| Record of Friends Travelling in Ireland, 1656-1765. II. 1713-1765 | 212 |
| The Cambridge Journal of George Fox .—VI. .. | 262 |
| A Stuart Among the Quakers. By Mabel R. Brailsford | 263 |
| Fatherly Solitude | 269 |
| “Going out for a Husband and Wife” | 270 |
| Friends in Nova Scotia, 1785 | 272 |
| Which was the Greater Hero? | 274 |
| The Story of Martha and Mary.. .. . | 275 |
| Harrison, of Brighton and Poole. By Perceval Lucas | 276 |
| “The Life of John Ianson” | 277 |
| “Nonconformity under the Clarendon Code” .. | 278 |
| The Value of “Teamwork” | 279 |
| Conscientious Shoemaking | 279 |
| Jane Watson, of Edenderry, Ireland. By Edith Webb | 280 |
| A Particular Observation of Truth’s Progress, 1731 | 281 |
| Extracts from State Papers. Review by Prof. G. Lyon Turner, M.A. | 282 |
| Friends in Current Literature. By The Editor .. | 292 |
| Editor’s Notes | 294 |
| Further Extracts from the Diary of Abiah Darby.. | 295 |
| Joseph Garratt of Cork | 295 |
| Notes and Queries:— | |
| “Sesis”—William Holbem, of Lewes—“Railways”—A Curious Coincidence—Joseph Taylor, of Co. Durham—A Quaker Solicitor General—John Hull—Elson or Nelson | 296 |
| Index | 298 |