Tho<sup>s</sup> Gawthrop from Westmoreland, He had formerly been a Soldier five years but having since been converted and baptis'd, is now grown an able Minister of Christ Jesus rightly dividing the Word of Truth, at our sixth day Meeting his concern was chiefly to the Elders being very strong and fervent, saying it was one thing to begin well, and another thing to end well, Speaking home to the states of some, putting them in mind of former reaches & visitations which he fear'd they were now gone from and grown into a disesteem of the Ministers that were concern'd on their account in plain dealing, Judging them as if they spoke in their own Spirits, farther intimating that there was a great necessity for some to return to their first love and that their Period was nearer than they were aware of.

First day morning he was livingly and divinely open'd in the word of Consolation to a little remnant left amongst us, whom he represented under the case of Daniel, who he said was daily concern'd to pray for those of the Captivity that they might be admitted to return again to Jerusalem, Such as these He said he would have to be to be duly priz'd and valued, It was indeed a refreshing good season and Truth rais'd in a good degree of dominion and triumph over the opposite nature and Spirit. In the afternoon he was sharp upon some that profess wth us, demonstrating them to be Propagators of the Kingdom of Satan, by exempling and drawing one another from the Truth into wrong things and putting the bottle to their Neighbours mouth &c. First day William open'd the morning Meeting, exhorting to staidness of mind and an inward gathering unto God in Spirit. In the afternoon Ja<sup>s</sup> Keyes appear'd first, but the service of the Meeting lay on Matthew Mellor who was open'd with great clearness, demonstrating that where that spirit which was not of God but of the World was entertained by consent and of choice, that coolness of love to God, a neglect and dislike of religious Duties, with other things would most certainly issue from it as the natural Product of that Spirit, Second day morning said Matthew had the service of the Meeting before him on the Subject of Love to God, shewing that there is no building Religion right without it, and that it makes every service pleasant, how hard soever it might otherwise appear to be, Third day morning Ja<sup>s</sup> Keyes appear'd first and after him Will<sup>m</sup> Taylor who was favour'd wth a good time and there was a reach of Truth over the Meeting, Fourth day went to Bandon & return'd next day, Sixth day morning W<sup>m</sup> Taylor open'd the Meeting on this head viz<sup>t</sup> always to keep in our remembrance that we must come to Judgment &c after which Matthew had a few words of Exhortation and then concluded the Meeting in Prayer. 2<sup>d</sup> <sup>o</sup>/<sub>m</sub> 9th. Will<sup>m</sup> Brown, America, Sam<sup>l</sup> Neal, Dublin, came this day from Limerick, having been sent out of their way by the unskilfulness of some that directed them, the 10th being first of the week they had good service amongst us, next day had an opportunity at our Men & Womens Meeting together. And that afternoon went to Bandon accompany'd by several friends of Corke & had an evening Meeting there which was very full the house not being large enough to contain y<sup>m</sup> in which Will<sup>m</sup> laid open the Hireling Priests and their corrupt practices as Pride Covetousness & Oppression &c. with great Authority declaring that they neither know the Scriptures nor the Power of God, Instancing that of their seeking after great Benefices & then hiring a Journeyman for perhaps less than a fourth part of their Income to Preach in their stead thus making Merchandize of the People to which some of them assented saying it was true, The next day went to Dunmanaway had a Meeting there which was full & the people sober & attentive where Will<sup>m</sup> had the like concern as before to lay open the Priests & their Practices, that night came back to Bandon, & next morning went to Kinsale and there had a large & satisfactory Meeting, next day to Corke and had a Meeting by appointment which was full and to good satisfaction & next day towards Limerick to the Pro: Meeting. Samuel was a young man lately come forth in the Ministry who had formerly lived in a loose way of life but the Lord was pleased to visit him both immediately and Instrumentally, & particularly by the Ministry of Kath Payton & Samuel Fothergill.

6th <sup>o</sup>/<sub>m</sub> 11th. Samuel Spevold from Hitchin in Hartfordshire was at our sixth & first day Meetings at both which he was concern'd to speak plainly & closely to the states of many, and expressed something in a Prophetick way, observing how the Lord had shaken the Rod several times in this & other nations & yet it seem'd to have but little effect, & he said he feared nothing but heavy Judgments would do; & the same evening at Abr<sup>m</sup>

Fuller's at a Meeting of several friends he declared with great weight & under an extraordinary Concern, that the Lord would try the foundations of men and of Friends as a People, & seemed to think it would fall heavier on them than on others, often repeating it as a thing sealed to his understanding, & that y<sup>e</sup> same had often been opened to him since he came into this Nation. In the words of the Prophet Amos 3<sup>d</sup> Chap. & 2<sup>d</sup> Verse, & that he seemed to think the time near, & the Child born yea grown up that will live to see it, and farther said that some who were present might live to see it, and that the sound of Mortality would be such as should make the hearts of thousands & tens of thousands to tremble, and their ears to tingle, he went next day to Bandon, Kinsale, Dunmanaway, return'd to Bandon & so back to Corke, on the 18th he had an Opportunity with the Men & Women's Meetings together by appointment where he had the like concern as before, declaring with great weight that a stripping day was at hand, and that this is the generation that shall see it. He went hence the 2<sup>d</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> 7th  $\frac{\circ}{\text{m}}$  towards Youghall.

19th. Samuel Nottingham of Tortola landed here from said Island had some service here & went hence the 29th towards Youghall.

to the testimony of Truth, declaring with great authority in the demonstration of the Divine Power which was eminently with her, that the Lord would bring them down think what they would, & that he would humble them Let them look never so high, & tho' Gog & Magog Join in battle array yet the Lamb & his Followers shall have the Victory. The second was in the afternoon which seem'd to be mostly for those concern'd in the discipline of the Church cautioning them to stand their ground and not to Join with a wrong thing, not to let their spirits be mixed with those who are going on in things contrary to Truth, and not to heed those who cou'd speak words as smooth as Oil, and then addressing herself to the Meeting in general warned them, that none of them might hide their wickedness by Bribery. Next day she had a Concern to the Men & Women's Meetings, and at the latter spoke much to the above purpose Saying that the Enemy was endeavouring to lay waste the Heritage of God, & she was afraid he wou'd prevail if there was not a Care, Exhorting friends to stand their ground & stretch the line of Discipline over the heads of Transgressors, saying there was that which would prove deadly at the latter end (if not prevented) She also said this exercise was heavy upon her & that it was not from the hearing of the Ear but that she felt a spirit amongst them which was even as it were seared with an hot Iron, which was not willing that right and true Judgment should go forth.

Note there was a Person present who had heretofore opposed the Judgment of Friends & hinder'd Justice from being impartially administer'd, & has since given friends much trouble & uneasiness.

They went hence 8th <sup>o</sup>/<sub>m</sub> 1st to the Pro: Meeting at Youghall, being the first Pro: Meeting held there since the year<sup>s</sup> persuade People into a belief that they may indulge themselves in their Lusts & pleasures, as if the Almighty was so perfectly happy in himself as not to be moved with anger against Mankind for only gratifying those passions which himself has planted in their nature with more to this effect not noted, & farther said that he looked upon this to be as dangerous as Atheism itself He also spoke prophetically saying, he believ'd the time was near wherein the Lord would stretch forth his Rod over the Earth, Purge away the load of Sin & wickedness which has corrupted the earth & under which the very Creation groans (or to this purpose) & in the afternoon, after recounting something of the faithfulness of our worthy Elders & Predecessors he said there is a Mungrel Race grown up now, which tho' they would be thought to walk in the light yet there is a mixture of darkness & they are acting in their own wisdom, but he said the Lord would raise up some as it were out of the dust who shall take their Crowns off their heads, They went hence y<sup>e</sup> 22<sup>d</sup> towards the Pro: Meeting at Limerick.
