

Editor's Notes

THE Editor regrets the delay in the issue of the last part of last year's volume, although that delay has made evident the interest with which many of his readers anticipate the publication of THE JOURNAL. It is to be hoped that the four issues of the present volume will make timely appearance.

Among articles which it is intended to print in volume XV. may be named "The Life and Letters of Jean de Marsillac," a French Friend of the late eighteenth century, who has been described as a "Napoleonic spy"; "The Dresses of a Quaker Wedding Party in the Eighteenth Century"; further "private views" of London Yearly Meeting; "The Goff Letters," by S. Hilda Bell, and other records of Friends in Ireland; etc.

It has been decided to publish as a special Supplement to THE JOURNAL a paper by A. Neave Brayshaw, read at numerous meeting houses in late months, describing the personal life of George Fox. Some of the material has been drawn from obscure and little known sources, and "The Personality of George Fox" is presented in a light and with a detail which will be new to most readers.

The Supplement will probably run to ninety-six pages and will, by special arrangement, be sold at the reduced price of one shilling (post free for one shilling and three-pence).

Later in the year a souvenir volume of the celebration of two-and-a-half centuries of London Yearly Meeting will probably appear. See page one of this issue.
