Recent Accessions to D

IN addition to the unstarred literature introduced under the heading “Friends and Current Literature,” the following items have been added to D during the last few months:

From the Land of Dreams, by John Todhunter, Talbot Press, Dublin, 141 pp. 1918. John Todhunter (1839-1916) came of a Quaker stock, originally from Cumberland. “They were seafaring folk. His great grandfather was a Whitehaven shipowner who sailed his own ships. On one occasion he was presented by the underwriters of Liverpool with a piece of plate in recognition of his seamanship and gallantry in saving the ship ‘Ellen’ in difficult circumstances. John Todhunter’s grandfather settled in Dublin in the timber trade. His mother was one of the Limerick Harveys. He went to school first at Mountmellick and afterwards at the Friends’ School, York. When the serious business of life began for him—it began at sixteen years of age—we find him working in business houses in Dublin, Pim’s and Bewley’s, but before long he gravitated to Trinity College, where he entered the Medical School. He took his M.B. degree in 1867, and the M.D. in 1871, but before the latter date he turned his attention to literature and will be known in the future as a poet.” (Information from Introduction.)

Todhunter was certificated as a Friend from Dublin to Limerick in 1860, from Limerick to Dublin in 1862, from Dublin to Westminster and Longford M.M. in 1877. He resigned his membership. He died in London. (Information from Edith Webb, per J. Ernest Grubb.)
