

The Annual Meeting

THE Annual Meeting of the F.H.S. was held at Devonshire House, London, on Friday, 3rd January, under the chairmanship of Robert H. Marsh, who acted in the absence of the president, Albert Cook Myers, of Pennsylvania. Anna L. Littleboy was elected president for 1919, a position which would have been occupied by our late friend Isaac Sharp had he lived to add to his many services for the Society.

Margaret Sefton-Jones, F.R.Hist.S., read a valuable paper on "The Site of Devonshire House from Saxon Tanyard to Tudor Mansion."

There was a good attendance of members and others, and much interest shown in the proceedings.

The balance sheet for the year 1917 appeared in vol. xv.

"London Yearly Meeting during 250 Years"

(Vol. xv. pp. 1, 105)
