

CONTENTS

	Page
Our Quotation—II. . . . .	65
“London Yearly Meeting during 250 Years” . . . . .	65
Friends in Buckinghamshire, 1668 . . . . .	70
London Yearly Meeting in 1833 . . . . .	71
“The Journal of George Fox” in circulation in Somerset . . . . .	74
John Hall to William Dewsbury . . . . .	75
Bail-dock. By A. Neave Brayshaw, B.A., LL.B. . . . . .	77
Life and Letters of Jean de Marsillac, IV. By Norman Penney . . . . .	81
Meeting Records: Swarthmore M.M. . . . .	90
Presentations in Episcopal Visitations, 1662-1679. By Prof. G. Lyon Turner, M.A., F.R.Hist.S. . . . . .	91
“Bristol Royal Infirmary” . . . . .	92
American Notes. By Ella Kent Barnard . . . . .	93
The Three Sarah Grubbs of Clonmel. By J. Ernest Grubb . . . . .	95
Isaac Blackbeard and his “Book of Three Leaves,” 1783 . . . . .	97
Friends and Current Literature . . . . .	99
Recent Accessions to D . . . . .	103
Friends’ Africa Industrial Mission . . . . .	105
“The Desecrated Quaker Maidens” . . . . .	106
R. J. Campbell and Quakerism . . . . .	107
John Rutter, M.D., of Liverpool . . . . .	108
Notes and Queries:
Elizabeth Frank, of York—George Thompson, anti-slavery speaker—Alice Wright—Quaker and Comedian—A Quaker Invention—Baptisms—Ann Blaykling . . . . .	109