

all her books and writings ;⁴ and in her will particularly desires that for her sake they will at times look into them. She also ordered to have a plain elm coffin unpolished, no ornaments on the hearse, no wine or strong liquors handed about—which was strictly complied with.

“ She had attended the Morning Meeting on second day before, was then very particular in advice to ministers and elders. On the 3rd day afternoon she was at Peel Monthly Meeting, which was on account of a committee attending, it lasted several hours. She spent the evening at Thos. Corbyns and next morning breakfasted with usual health and spirits, and just as she was preparing for meeting was seized as above.

“ Her daughter and family are now in France. She often expressed much uneasiness at their wintering there, at which no doubt they will be concerned, as they were all affectionate children to a very affectionate parent.”

⁴ Among these were: An Exhortation to the Inhabitants of South Carolina, 1748; A Caution to such as observe Days and Times called Festivals; that they spend them not in Rioting, Revelling, Wantonness, etc. no date; Extracts from Divers Ancient Testimonies of Friends, etc.; A Word of Advice and Warning to Handicrafts-Men, Labourers, Carmen, Coachmen, Chairmen, etc.

Glaisters of Scotland and Cumberland

In vol. xx. N.S. of the Transactions of the Cumberland and Westmorland Antiquarian and Archæological Society, dated 1920, there is a long article with above title. In it are several notices of Quaker Glaisters. There were burials of the family in the burial-ground at Allonby. “ In the Minute Books [? Registers] of the Society of Friends in Cumberland there are at least seventy-seven entries. The earliest, a burial, is dated in 1681, and the latest in 1839. These entries comprehend members who attended the meeting-houses at Beckfoot, Wigton, Moorhouse and elsewhere.”
