

for Marsillac's sudden change of mind and manner. Some fresh light is also thrown upon his later days in France.

As to John De Marcilliac le Cointe, he went to America and was pretty well thought of and respected. But going with a Friend in a chaise, on turning a corner of a street in Philadelphia, the chaise was overturned and said Friend killed on the spot, which made such an impression on his mind that he soon returned to France, and since that time I have heard but little of him only that he was known to enter the French army in Spain, on the medical staff.

However, I very much want to know what his latter end will be, and was I to land in France [from his home in Guernsey] I have thought I should at least make some enquiry for him at his former residence, near Dieppe, at a place called Chateau Des Vignes. NORMAN PENNEY.

¹ I cannot restrain the expression of the feeling how much our late friend, A. C. Thomas, would have welcomed any extension of our knowledge of a person in whose life he was much interested.
