

The Cambridge "Journal of George Fox"

73.—Vol. I., p. 452.—In Fleetwood Family Records for January, 1921, collected and edited by Robert Woodward Buss (copy in D), there is a reproduction of miniatures of Charles Fleetwood (1618-1692). There is also a notice of the will of Hester Fleetwood, a Friend of Chalfont Meeting (THE JOURNAL, vii. 64), widow of the Regicide, Colonel George Fleetwood of the Vache (1622—1674 ?), witnessed by Thomas Ellwood and proved 13 May, 1714 (P.P.C. Aston, 94). There is also a reproduction of miniatures of Colonel George Fleetwood.

74.—Vol. II., p. 135.—We are surprised to find no note to Henry Jackson, but it is probable that information lacking in 1911 is forthcoming in 1921. There were three of the name in succession. HENRY JACKSON, primus (1593-1667), lived at Mealhill, township of Hepworth, county of York and was a soldier in the Royalist army. He had one son, HENRY JACKSON, secundus (1633/4-1710), who became a Friend and a Minister and at whose house at Mealhill George Fox held a meeting in 1669. He was a man of influence and wealth and built Totties Hall, Wooldale, about 1682. He was the founder of Wooldale Meeting. He was imprisoned at Lincoln in 1663, Warwick in 1663-6 and later at York. In 1665/6 (apparently during the time of his imprisonment) he married Katherine Cooke (- 1695). Among his eleven children were Elihu (1669-1730), physician, of Mealhill and Doncaster, and also Wooldale Hall, which he built about 1714 (his widow née Katherine Vicars, of Doncaster, sold Mealhill in 1739); Hannah (1675-1682) and Tabitha (1679-1682), who both died of small-pox and whose gravestones have, of recent years, been found in an outhouse adjoining Wooldale meeting house (Sunday Magazine, Feb. 1905); and Henry tertius (1680-1727).

HENRY JACKSON, tertius, lived at Totties Hall. He was a prominent Friend and travelling Minister in Great Britain and Ireland. He married, firstly in 1703 Barbary Lupton (c. 1684-1717), of Bradley, near Skipton, and secondly, Mary, daughter of Thomas Ellwood, of Kendal. By his first wife he had seven children. His daughters married into the families of Lister, Cowell, Marsden and Arthington. His surviving son was Ebenezer Jackson (1715-1775), who died unmarried.

75.—Vol. I., p. 49.—“ I went Into ye Iland of Wana & after ye preist had donne I spoake to him who gott away . . . I went to look for ye preist att his house & hee woulde not bee seene but ye people saide hee went to hide himselfe in ye haymowe . . . & then they saide hee was gone to hide himselfe amongst ye standinge corne . . . but they coulde not finde him.”

Mr. P. V. Kelly, of Barrow, has kindly sent extracts from notes made by the late Mr. Harper Gaythorpe, which give the name of the minister of Walney above referred to :

" From the Dalton Parish Registers we find that a Mr. Soutwerké was minister of Walney between 1649 and 1657. He was probably acting unofficially when the Parliamentary Survey was made in 1650 and was not duly appointed till after the grant of £50 a year was made in 1651. Mr. Soutwerke, like other Lancashire ministers of the time was a Presbyterian, the Church in Lancashire being then under Presbyterian government."

Mr. Soutwerke's name also occurs in the History of Northscale by the late W. B. Kendall, printed in vol. xiii. (1899) of the Barrow Naturalists' Field Club Proceedings. The name also occurs in the same connection in the mss. of William Close, the editor of the second edition of West's Antiquities of Furness, which are preserved in the Manchester Public Library.

76.—Vol. II., pp. 217, 226n, 244, 426, 437.—The place where John Jay met with his accident was Porback, near Shrewsbury in New Jersey. The house into which Jay was carried was visited in 1786 by Elisha Kirk—a travelling preacher. It was then occupied by William Parker, " the log on which George Fox laid Jay, yet lying there with no more virtue in it than any other log " (Elisha Kirk's Journal in Comly's Miscellany, vol. vi. p. 36).

77.—Vol. I., pp. 359, 463.—Remove figure 5 from last line and erase note 359. 5.

78.—Vol. I., p. 427.—Of Henry Walker, Cromwell's " newsmonger-priest," we glean a few more particulars from Mercurius Britanicus His Welcome to Hell : with the Devils Blessing to Britanicus, by Sir Francis Wortley, 1647 :

" To Henry Walker I beare much affection,
 Hee's red-hair'd, of Isariots right complexion,
 Like Sheba, Bichri's son, he did rebell,
 And cried out, to your tents, O Israel,
 He was an Ironmonger at first, and then
 He turn'd Bookseller, after that his pen
 Libel'd against the King, and did incroach
 So neare him, that he threw't into his coach,
 For which he should have gone to th' Triple-Tree,
 But pity, and the Kings high clemency
 Wrote to the Parliament, that they should spare him,
 Whose power unto the Pillory did reare him.
 Since when, to shew his humble thanks the more,
 Reviles the King worse than he did before.
 Writes Weekly Newes, and lies egregiously,
 And oftentimes doth preach most grievously ;
 For which I will prefer him unto thee,
 When thou com'st, he shall then thy Chaplain be."

79.—Vol. I., p. 458.—For more respecting Col. John Wigan, see THE JOURNAL, xvi. 141.

80.—Vol. I., p. 419.—With the aid of the Index to the First Volume of the Parish Registers of Gainford in the County of Durham, 1889, recently through our hands, we can supply some additions and corrections to the note on Henry Draper, of Headlam, and John, his son. Following Steel's Early Friends in the North, we stated that Henry Draper married Eleanor Birkbeck. According to the Registers, Elliner Byrchbeck married Robert Meriton or Merrington, 12 April, 1631, and on 24 April, 1636, Ellin Merrington, widow, married Henry Draper. They had several children. John, the surviving son, being born 27 Feb. 1639/40.

"Mrs. Ellin Draper" died 22 April, 1649 and Mr. John Draper, Headlam, 13 Jan. 1671/2. There is no entry of the death of John's wife, née Bridget Fell, or of his father.

The Rowntree History

With the recent appearance of The Later Periods of Quakerism, written by Rufus M. Jones, of Haverford College, Pa., in two volumes of xxxvi. + 1,020 pages (London: Macmillan, 30s. net), the history of Quakerism planned by the late John Wilhelm Rowntree has reached its completion. We well remember the visit of J. W. Rowntree to Devonshire House on a return from the United States and the energy with which he presented and explained his scheme to the Recording Clerk and the Librarian.

The first two volumes—Studies in Mystical Religion and Spiritual Reformers in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries discover for us an earlier Quakerism in the lives and writings of reformers and mystics of pre-Foxite periods. Then comes The Beginnings of Quakerism, by W. C. Braithwaite, carrying the history down to 1660. Next we are carried across to the New World and told of The Quakers in the American Colonies, by R. M. Jones. The Second Period of Quakerism (1660-1725), by W. C. Braithwaite, follows, and then R. M. Jones, the general editor, brings down the wonderful story to our days in a series of brilliant and scholarly dissertations.

Now, for the benefit of those who cannot or care not to read the seven volumes, Elizabeth B. Emmott has, in the press, A Short History of Quakerism, which, within the compass of about 350 pages, summarises the contents and revives the spirit of the nearly 4,000 pages of a work which takes high rank in the literature of Quakerism.
