

Concerning the Supplements

JN our twelfth volume (1915) we announced that "Supplement No. 13" would consist of extracts from the A.R.B. Manuscripts, and we invited purchasers at the subscription price of half-a-crown. Favourable replies were received and the money sent was allocated to this purpose. The cost of printing and scarcity of paper prevented the carrying out of our plan. We shall be glad if subscribers to this proposed Supplement will be willing to allow the money sent to be placed to the general account for the printing of the Journal itself. The finances of the Society are in considerable need of help.

The presidential address, delivered last May, by Charles F. Jenkins, of Philadelphia, on the history of Friends in the Island of Tortola, will appear as a separate publication early next year.

"The Household Account Book of Sarah Fell of Swarthmoor Hall"

THIS work which has been referred to as in preparation in volumes x., xi., xii., xv., xvii., has now been published by the Cambridge University Press in a book of over 600 pages; we propose to adopt the same method, carried out since 1912 in connection with the Cambridge edition of The Journal of George Fox, and insert, from time to time, additions and corrections which have reached the editor.

1—Page 161, line 7 from foot, cross out the 2 as there is not any note at the end of the volume corresponding with this figure.

2—Page 555, line 8 from foot, for Fishlake read Fishwick.

3—Page 589, column 2, the following further references to Fox, George, may be noted, 227, 249, 261, 273, 287, 291³, 295², 297, 303, 307, 315, 331², 333, 335, 347², 349², 361, 373, 375², 397, 411², 459.

4—Page 528, John Kirkby, of Coniston. In the Transactions of the Cumberland and Westmorland Antiquarian and Archæological Society, N.S. xx., 1920, p. 177, there are references to papers preserved at Hill Top, Crosthwaite. "The papers have principal reference to John Kirkby who lived at Coniston Hall, his sister Alice being the wife of William Fleming, of Coniston. He appears in these letters in an amiable light as earning the gratitude of his kinsfolk for his attention to their affairs."
