

Concerning the Supplements

JN our twelfth volume (1915) we announced that "Supplement No. 13" would consist of extracts from the A.R.B. Manuscripts, and we invited purchasers at the subscription price of half-a-crown. Favourable replies were received and the money sent was allocated to this purpose. The cost of printing and scarcity of paper prevented the carrying out of our plan. We shall be glad if subscribers to this proposed Supplement will be willing to allow the money sent to be placed to the general account for the printing of the Journal itself. The finances of the Society are in considerable need of help.

The presidential address, delivered last May, by Charles F. Jenkins, of Philadelphia, on the history of Friends in the Island of Tortola, will appear as a separate publication early next year.

"Mat. Moorhouse of Kirkburton parish sth he hath been oft with Mr. Brigs their vicar, rid with him, but he speakes not a word of god, or religion, and in his preaching he speakes so low that few in the church understand him. These things incline M. M. wife to the quakers bec. she sth they have some power, she is a notable understanding woman, hath learnt much scripture without book, hath good affection, but alas, they want powerfull preaching, my heart bleeds for them—alas, alas."
