

James Backhouse, John Hodgkin, H. C. Backhouse, Mira [? Maria] Fox, &c. &c. were publicly engaged, and that Eliz^h Fox of Falmouth added much interest to those present by appearing clothed with such a portion of Spiritual greenness: K. B. said She informed them with much interesting information respecting Edwin Tregalis and companion's religious servis in the West Indies, all of a pleasant discription.

"And I lately was informed by James Backhouse that he had had some agreeable information from Hobert Town, that they had lately had several additional applications for Membership with Friends, and that they had established another Mo. Meeting; amongst those who had applied to become Members was Daniel Wheelers Cabing Boy, who appeared now to have become a very respectable looking consistent Friend."

[Then follows a reference to an Address to be printed, "that thy dearly beloved Father, thirty years ago, assisted me in getting printed," and an expression of warm affection still felt towards John Sanderson and his home at Old Jewry, London.]

"On my latly considering what Friends were now living who were among my first correspondants, it appeared that thou was now become one of my oldest correspondants, altho I have a few older Friends with whom I correspond, as Tho^s Christy, W^m Gundry, Edward Pease, Anna Prise, Eliz^h Fox, and a very few others yet so it is that I have outlived most of them."

"A Prehistoric Quaker"
