Several of these stones were buried over the graves, probably owing to the ruling that no headstones should be allowed. They have been disinterred by William Morgan, who is now living at Tasburgh, and set up by him over the graves again.

ARTHUR J. EDDINGTON.

Western Counties Circular Y.M.

In J.F.H.S. xxix, 47, under the heading "A Wise Suggestion" for "Bristol" read "Hereford". Neave Brayshaw writes pointing out that the Y.M. which was held in Bristol until 1798 was distinct from the Circular Y.M. of the Western Counties which lasted until 1786, and that when the latter was held in Gloucestershire it met as follows:—1725 Wooton-under-Edge, 1732 Tetbury, 1739 Gloucester, 1746 Minchinhampton, 1753 Coleford, 1760 Wooton-under-Edge, 1767 Tetbury, 1774 and 1786 Gloucester.
