

IMPORTANT BOOKS

THE VALIANT SIXTY

by Ernest E. Taylor

This is the authentic account of the beginnings of Quakerism and tells how farmers, labourers, craftsmen and servants, both men and women, left all they had in response to George Fox's message of the indwelling of Christ. Crown 8vo Cloth bound with folding map and illustrations 8/6 (postage 6d)

MISS GILPIN AND THE HALL SCHOOL

An important account of a Quaker educational pioneer which is intended to record and convey Eva Gilpin's purpose, method and achievements in education. There is also an account of her collateral enterprise—The International Schoolchildren's Gatherings. 150 pages Illustrated 7/6 (postage 6d)

WORKADAY SAINTS

by T. Edmund Harvey, M.A.

Of the varied studies which form this book, T. Edmund Harvey writes, "I have tried to trace the growth of the communion of saints in the history of the Christian Church and something of its meaning for our lives today." A beautifully produced book. Crown 8vo Cloth bound 5/- (postage 6d)

available from Friends Book Centre, and published by

THE BANNISDALE PRESS

46/47 Chancery Lane, London, W.C.2

Contents

	PAGE
Annual Meeting &c.	41
More Funds Needed	42
Some Byways in Quaker Research. Isabel Ross	43
The Catholic Boys at Ackworth. Reginald Reynolds	57
Bristol Quakers and The Oaths. Russell S. Mortimer	72
Additions to the Library	77
Microfilms in the Library	79
Research in Progress	80
Recent Publications	81
Notes and Queries	84
Index	86